As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

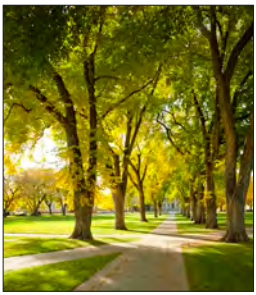
With more than 150 programs of study and 78 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 17:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.

Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart. Even more important, CSU's character is reflected in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission of service and go on to make a significant impact on our world when they graduate.

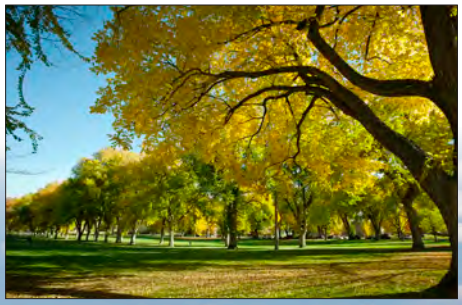
- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks third in the country, also ranking third in national federal research dollars.
- BusinessWeek ranked CSU's undergraduate College of Business program 73rd. The Occupational Theraphy program ranked 6th, and Biological/Agricultural Engineering was 23rd.
- In 2008, CSU conferred its 150,000th bachelor's degree and 200,000th overall degree.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the graduation rate for the overall student body.

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that Colorado State leads the Mountain West Conference in graduation rate for student-athletes at 67 percent – well ahead of the conference's overall four-year student-athlete graduation rate of 59 percent. In football, Colorado State is second in the MW, graduating 68 percent of its student-athletes – again, well ahead of the four-year conference rate of 49 percent. Additionally, CSU student-athletes continue to graduate at a higher percentage than the general student body.

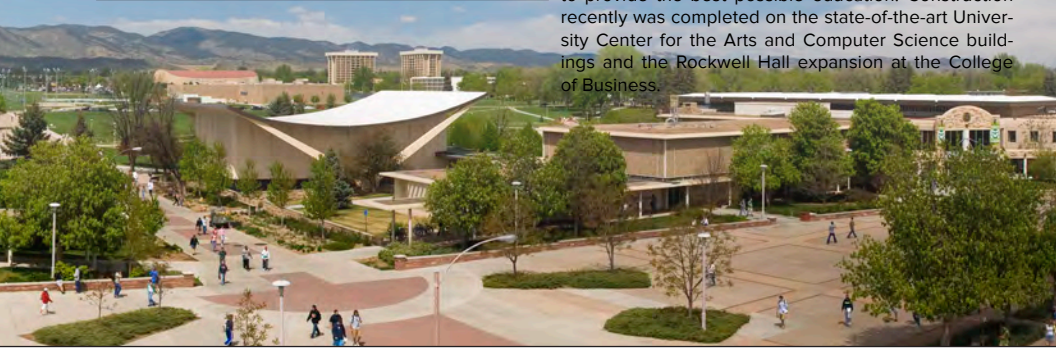


Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which has greatly enhanced the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.



While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State in the top 60 of its annual "America's Best Colleges" report, up to 60th in 2014 from 67th. The university offers 72 majors and 27 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. Construction recently was completed on the state-of-the-art University Center for the Arts and Computer Science buildings and the Rockwell Hall expansion at the College of Business.



One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Tucked against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 21st-largest metro area.

Fort Collins' 150,000 residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and the city boasts a lively arts and cultural scene, and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with over 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

Fort Collins Facts

- America's Most Satisfied City (Time magazine, April 2014).
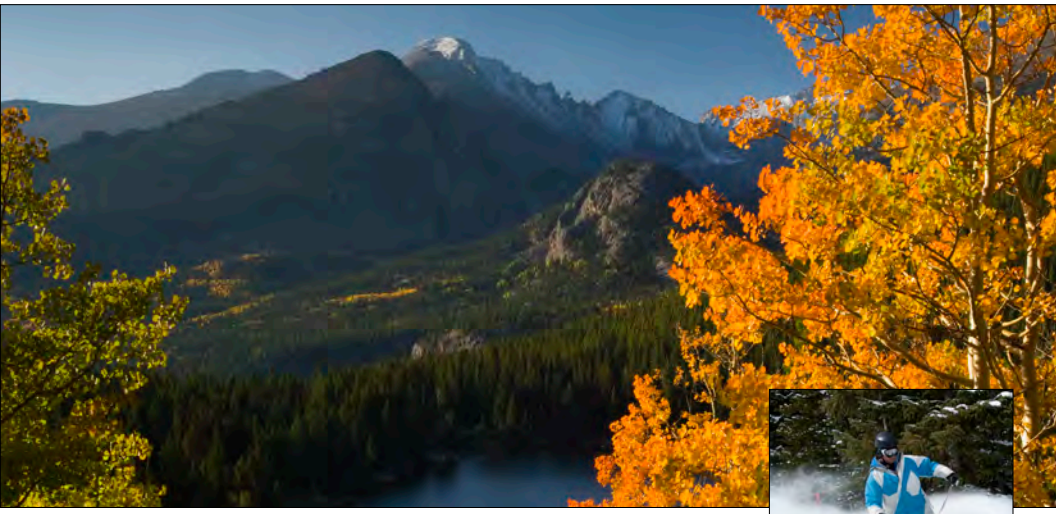
- 2013 Best Towns in America (1 of 18) (Outside magazine, October 2013).
- Ranked 7th on Best Places for Business and Careers (Forbes, August 2013).
- No. 4 Healthiest Mid-Size City in U.S. (2012 Gallup-Healthways Survey, February 2013).
- Ranked 11th on America's Top 50 Bike-Friendly Cities (Bicycle Magazine, May 2012).
- No. 5 in Forbes magazine's best United States cities for business and careers (June 2011).
- One of the Top 20 Places to Thrive (Best Boomer Towns, February 2009).
- Fifth-Most Educated City in the country based on education levels of our adult population (Portfolio.com, December 2010).

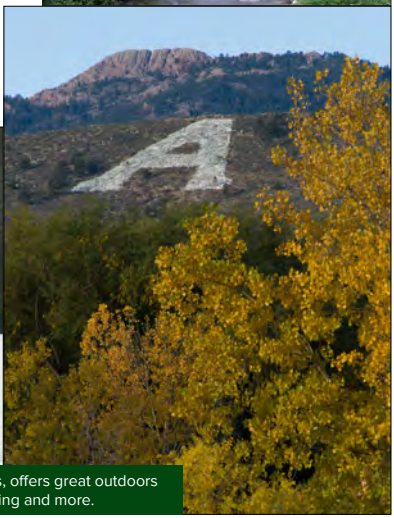
150,000+ Approximate population of Fort Collins

Old Town Fort Collins, the inspiration for Disneyland's Mainstreet USA.



Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

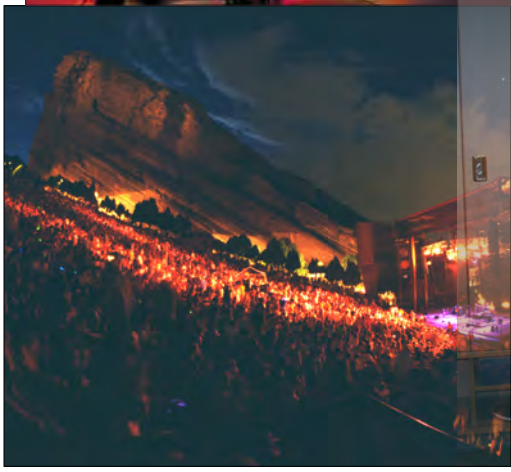
The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 29 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. Old Town, the heart of Fort Collins, offers a one-of-a-kind shopping experience and more than 80 restaurants, in addition to a vibrant night life and multiple cultural arts centers.



Horsetooth Reservoir, located just a few miles west of CSU's main campus, offers great outdoors opportunities including camping, boating, fishing, swimming, hiking, climbing and more.

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of 2.4 million, is less than an hour's drive from Fort Collins. Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 15 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation. Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, right), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (below, right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, left), and the world's 10th-busiest airport, Denver International.

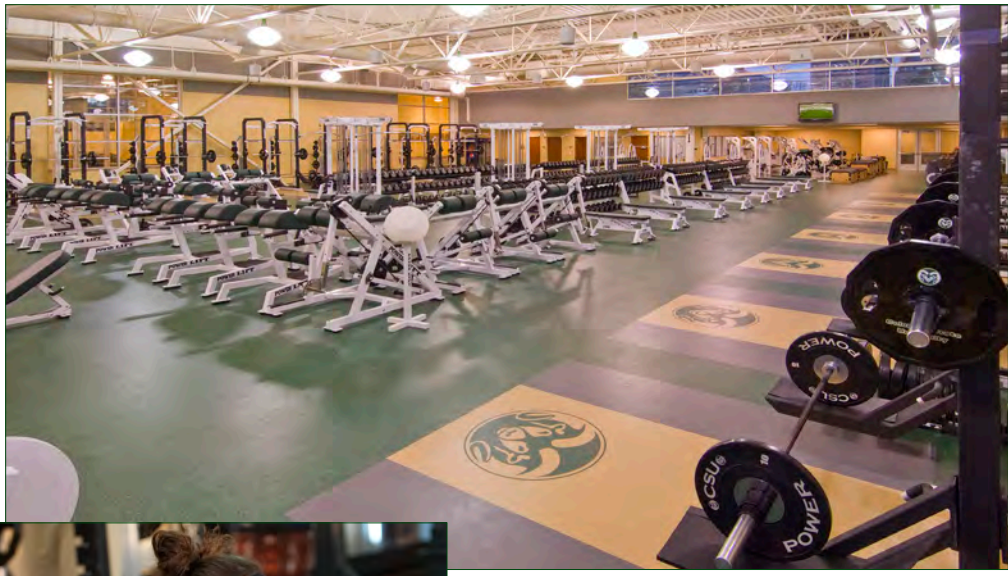
Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.



CSU's locker and team room was renovated in October 2012. The locker area features personal lockers for each player, a bathroom and shower area, and a kitchen area for snacks.

The lounge section includes couches and a big-screen TV for relaxation, a computer and printer, and a disco ball, which serves for dance parties prior to each match.

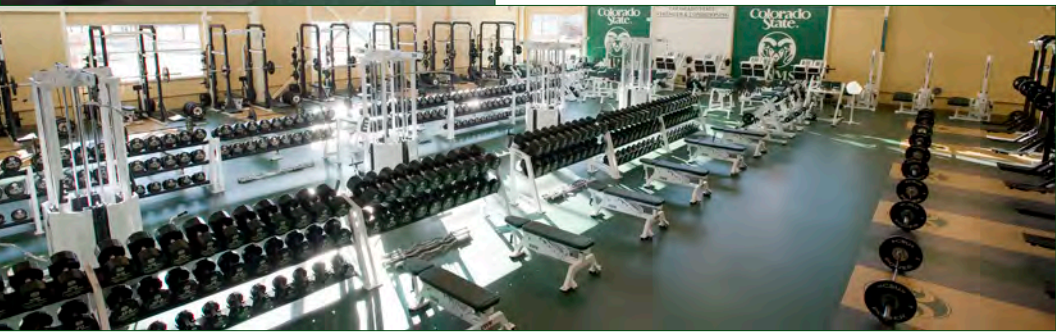
The walls remind players of the program's rich history, displaying photos for each of its all-conference and All-America recipients.



Completed in 2009, the Anderson Academic Training Center offers student-athletes a state-of-the-art weight room and strength and conditioning center.

In addition to brand-new equipment, a nutrition center and more than 8,000 square feet, the volleyball team has its own strength coach, who designs programs specifically for the team and its needs.

A large reason for the volleyball program's success on the court is the team's ability to become stronger, faster, more flexible and more agile in this comprehensive facility.



Student-athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them. The academic portion of the Anderson Academic Training Center offers a first-class academic facility for CSU student-athletes.

The Anderson Academic Training Center helps CSU student-athletes graduate at a higher rate and with a higher GPA than the general student-body. The volleyball team held a cumulative grade-point average above 3.0 in 2013-14, with nine players earning Mountain West Academic All-Conference recognition.

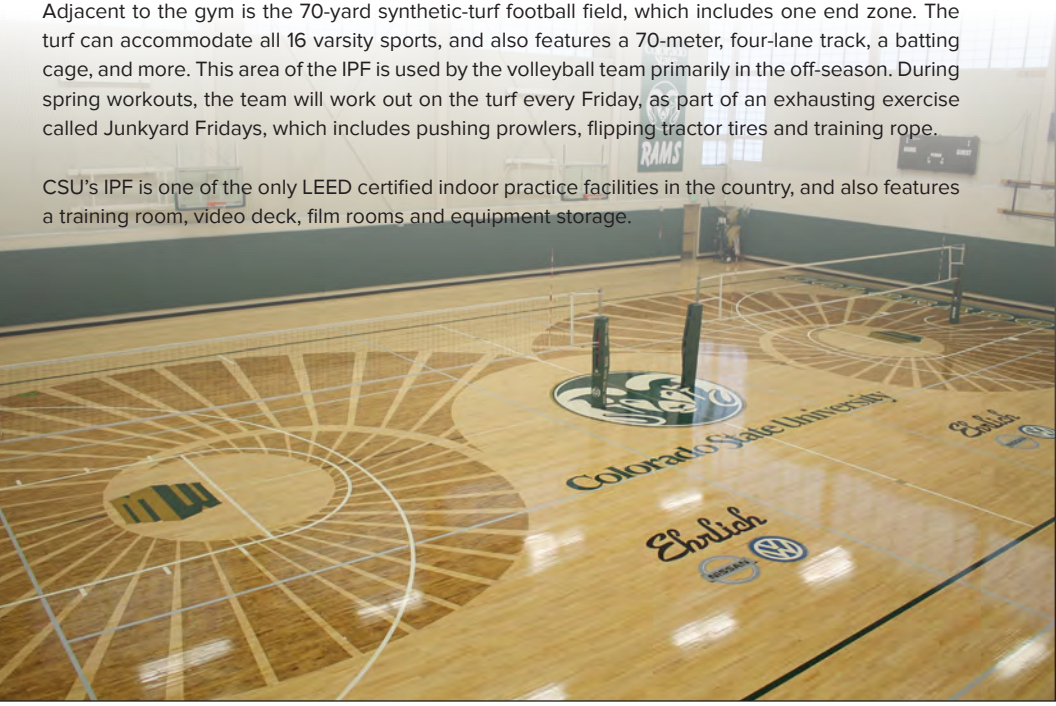
Features:

- More than 9,000 square feet of space
- Computer lab with 30 new work stations
- Large study areas
- Five private tutorial rooms
- Offices for CSU's six full-time academic coordinators

Also established in 2009, the Indoor Practice Facility measures more than 66,000 square feet, and offers additional space for the volleyball team to train. The gym portion accommodates two full-size courts, which allows for the team to break up into smaller groups for more individualized work. In 2013, the court was re-surfaced, modeling the Moby Arena playing court identically – including the Ram horns, center logo, Mountain West decals and sponsorship ads.

Adjacent to the gym is the 70-yard synthetic-turf football field, which includes one end zone. The turf can accommodate all 16 varsity sports, and also features a 70-meter, four-lane track, a batting cage, and more. This area of the IPF is used by the volleyball team primarily in the off-season. During spring workouts, the team will work out on the turf every Friday, as part of an exhausting exercise called Junkyard Fridays, which includes pushing prowlers, flipping tractor tires and training rope.

CSU's IPF is one of the only LEED certified indoor practice facilities in the country, and also features a training room, video deck, film rooms and equipment storage.



During the summer of 2013, CSU's sports medicine center was expanded, nearly doubling in size to help make it one of the finest in the country.

The training room features a multitude of new taping and treatment tables, rehabilitation equipment and larger hot/cold tubs that range from 55 to 102 degrees. The gem of the tubs is the HydroWorx2000, the only of its kind in the state of Colorado. The pool features an underwater treadmill that can raise and lower, and features five cameras which are linked to two screens to allow the training staff to watch gait training, register how the body is working biomechanically and if student-athletes are favoring any part of their bodies during rebab.

The staff of full-time trainers – including one specifically for volleyball – help prevent injuries, and when they do happen, the upgraded facility helps get them back on the court quicker.

In addition to the new facilities and renovations to help make Colorado State student-athletes some of the best-equipped in the country, Moby Arena has also received a branding makeover over the past two years, including a resurfaced Moby Arena court and a branding project that includes the exterior of the building and the concourse. The highlight features a Hall of Fame display, honoring the rich history of Colorado State athletics.

Colorado State student-athletes realize the impact they have on others around them, even off the court. That's why each volleyball player participates in some form of volunteer service, ranging from working a youth camp to reading to elementary students. In 2013, recent graduate Michelle Smith even created Rams Care, a community outreach initiative intended to bring every CSU student-athlete together to help the local homeless. After collecting monetary donations at several athletic events, the money was used to buy needed supplies and assemble care packages for members of the homeless community. The event raised more than $3,600.

COACHING & SUPPORT STAFF

JOE PARKER

Director of Athletics | 1st Year at CSU | Michigan, '87

PARKER AT A GLANCE

Education

- Bachelor's degree in Economics from Michigan
- MBA from Texas

Personal

- Wife: Jennie; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy AD at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate AD at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker, a proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, was hired as director of athletics at Colorado State University by President Tony Frank on March 17, 2015.

Parker, who has been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

Parker, who was an All-America swimmer at Michigan, has served in the deputy role at Texas Tech since April 2011.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker has been involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity matters at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and recent launch of a current $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jennie, have two children, Emma and Will.

Joe Parker was introduced as the director of athletics at Colorado State on March 17, 2015.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT JOE PARKER...

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director
"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech
"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech retired Women's Basketball coach and 1993 National Champion in WBB
"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."

Jeff Long, Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas
"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma
"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's AD/Exec. Sr. Associate A.D., University of Texas
"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, former AD, University of Michigan
"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, athletics director, TCU
"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

DeLoss Dodds, retired athletic director, University of Texas
"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University
"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

TOM HILBERT

Head Coach | 19th Season at CSU | Oklahoma, '84

The Colorado State women's volleyball program has become synonymous with consistent winning under the guidance and tutelage of Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who completed his 18th season with the Rams and his 26th overall as a collegiate head coach in 2014.

With nine Mountain West Coach of the Year awards to his credit in the league's 16-year history, it is clear why Hilbert's program has risen to the top of the league and has become a stalwart on the national stage as a perennial top-25 team.

Under Hilbert, who was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the Hall of Honor recipient in 2006, the Rams have developed into one of the top programs in the nation, qualifying for the NCAA tournament all 18 seasons. Overall, CSU has played in 20-consecutive tournaments dating back to 1995, which ranks seventh nationally. The stretch also includes six Regional Semifinals appearances (Sweet 16) and 13 first-round victories.

Hilbert ranks 10th among active Division I head coaches (14th all-time) for winning percentage (.778), and 17th for total wins (636). Of those ranked in the top 20 for wins, Hilbert has coached the fewest total matches, owning a career record of 636-181. With the Rams' win vs. Nevada on Nov. 9, 2013, Hilbert became just the 10th coach in NCAA Division I women's volleyball history to record at least 600 victories and a career winning percentage above .770.

On Nov. 4, 2010, he became the winningest coach in any sport in CSU history, earning a victory over UNLV, his 353rd in Fort Collins. The win surpassed former men's basketball coach Jim Williams' mark of 352 victories. A year prior, Hilbert eclipsed the 500-win mark for his career. At the time, he was one of just two active coaches with more than 500 victories and fewer than 22 years of head coaching experience. Also in 2009, the veteran coach earned his 300th career win at CSU, moving ahead of his predecessor, Rich Feller, who won 299 matches from 1983-96.

The Rams won a sixth-consecutive Mountain West championship in 2014, also earning regular-season titles in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013. CSU is the only school in the NCAA to win its conference each of the past six seasons. In all, Hilbert has orchestrated 12 regular-season MW titles in 16 years, also adding five conference tournament championships in nine opportunities. The 17 total titles are more than all other MW teams -- past and present -- combined. CSU is 215-33 in MW action under Hilbert, never finishing lower than third. What's more, in 1998, CSU's final season in the WAC, the Rams won the Mountain Division. Of those who have played four seasons for the Rams under Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three winning three or more.

While at CSU, Hilbert has coached nine players who have earned AVCA All-America selections, including four in the past four years. On four occasions, a Ram has been named a Volleyball Magazine All-American, and 25 times one of Hilbert's players has been named All-America Honorable Mention by either the AVCA or Volleyball Magazine. Under Hilbert, CSU has also earned 11 MW Player-of-the-Year awards in the league's 16-year history, and a total of 73 all-conference selections.

In addition to 14 total conference coach-of-the-year awards, Hilbert was named the 2013 AVCA Pacific North Region Coach of the Year, his second regional honor during a three-year period and fifth of his career. He was recognized at the NCAA Final Four in Seattle, Wash.

Hilbert has led his teams to 20 or more wins every season since 1992, a span of 23-consecutive seasons, including the final five at Idaho and first 18 at CSU.

Expected to be a rebuilding year after graduating four senior starters, the 2013 Rams rewrote the CSU and Mountain West record books, winning their first 27 matches and finishing the season with a .933 winning percentage -- a program record.

The Rams carried over the momentum to 2014, a year in which CSU went 31-3 and advanced the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2009. Since the start of the 2013 season, CSU is 59-5 (.922), the second-best mark in the NCAA.

Hilbert has also turned CSU's home court, Moby Arena, into one of the most effective in the nation, compiling a 256-30 (.895) all-time home record. The Rams are 26-13 at Moby against ranked opponents, most recently defeating No. 19 Colorado in the second round of the 2014 NCAA tournament. Hilbert has 43 total wins against ranked teams, including upsetting No. 1 UCLA in 2000.

With big wins come big crowds. The CSU faithful continuously rank in the top 15 nationally for annual attendance figures, and has broken into the top 10 each of the past two seasons. The Rams ranked sixth in the NCAA in 2014, drawing 3,231 fans per match, including a school- and conference-record 7,018 vs. Wisconsin on Sept. 6. Between Sept. 18, 1998 and Nov. 18, 2000,

  - The Rams' streak of 20 straight ranks seventh nationally among active streaks
- 26 conference championships (17 reg. season)
- 12 AVCA All-America award-winners
- 5 AVCA Region Coach-of-the-Year awards, in addition to 14 conference honors
- 42 wins against top-25 teams
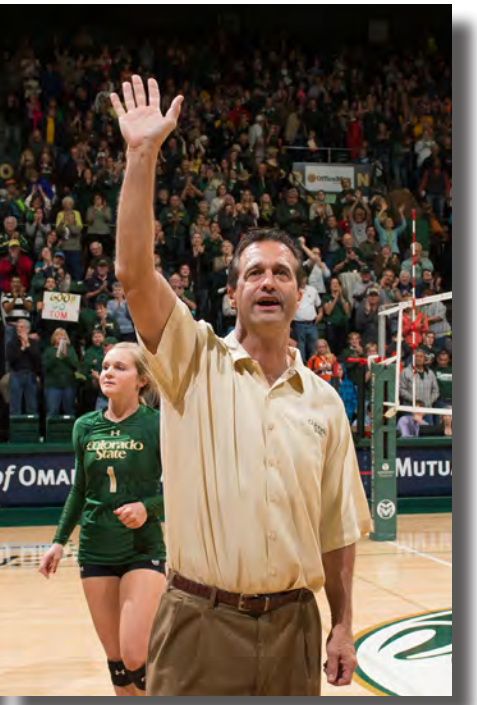
- Consistently ranked in the top 25, including as high as No. 3 in 2000, No. 6 in 2014, and No. 9 in 2013
- .895 winning percentage at Moby Arena (256-30)
- Ranked in the top 25 for attendance averages each season at CSU, including in the top 10 five times



CSU rattled off 44-consecutive home wins, a Moby Arena record for any sport. More recently, CSU has strung together streaks of 21 (2007-08 and 2012-13), 20 (2000-02) and 16 (2011-12).

CSU has been ranked in the AVCA top-25 poll more frequently than all but 13 Division I teams, with many of those rankings coming under Hilbert. In fact, Hilbert led CSU to its highest-ever ranking -- No. 3 for five weeks in 2000. On two occasions (2000, 2001), CSU has finished the year ranked in the top 10, and between Sept. 1, 1999 and Sept. 23, 2002, CSU was ranked 51 consecutive weeks. Through the 2014 season, the Rams have been ranked in 29-consecutive polls, reaching as high as No. 6 and finishing the year at No. 12.

Away from the court, Hilbert's teams have set the tone academically. During his tenure, two players have earned Academic All-America honors - Angela Knopf in 2000 and 2001 and Dana Cranston in 2012. Additionally, the Rams have earned 85 academic all-conference nods under Hilbert's guidance, including 43 over the past five seasons. His team's cumulative GPA continues to be well above 3.0.

Before coming to CSU, Hilbert accumulated a 174-72 (.707) record at Idaho -- which remains the most wins by a coach in Idaho history. He helped the Vandals to the Big West Eastern Division title in 1996, and in the Big Sky, his teams won either the regular season or tournament championship every year from 1992-95. In each of those seasons, Hilbert's Vandals played in the NCAA tournament - posting first-round wins in 1993 and 1994 - and Hilbert was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Moscow, the Vandals went 15-14, a drastic improvement from the program's combined 16-41 mark from the two prior seasons. Just five years later, in 1994, Idaho recorded a program-record 31 victories (31-3). Hilbert coached the Big Sky's first All-American in Mindy Rice. He also guided Idaho to its first national ranking - the first-ever ranking by a Big Sky team. In addition to Rice, Hilbert tutored nine AVCA All-Region selections, four Big Sky MVPs and 20 all-conference recipients.

Prior to Idaho, Hilbert spent five seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma, from 1984-88. The Sooners went 115-56 (.673) in Hilbert's five seasons in Norman, including two trips to the NCAA tournament and an appearance in the 1988 Regional Finals.

Away from the college game, Hilbert has coached several international trips through Bring It Promotions, including winning the Global Challenge in 2009 in Croatia and coaching a USA Select Team in Argentina in 2005.

A native of Norman, Okla., Hilbert earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing in 1984 from Oklahoma. In 1993, he received a master's degree in sports and recreation management from Idaho. Hilbert has resided in Fort Collins since 1997 with his daughter, Myles (14).

HILBERT'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

What is your coaching philosophy?
My philosophy in volleyball is you need to play low error and as athletic as possible. If you keep your errors down and you maximize your athleticism in all your hitting positions, you're going to beat a lot of teams, and that's what our goal is. I also have a philosophy that every player needs to try and make improvements and grow in all areas every day. Whether it's citizenship, academics or volleyball, that's an important part of what we do.

What is your favorite thing about coaching at CSU?
The support of the program is second to none. If you're a coach of volleyball at CSU, you know you're appreciated, you know the community is into what you're doing, and to me, that's the greatest reward; that's what makes the quality of my job so high. There are a lot of places that have great programs and good financial support, but CSU is a good program with good financial support and has fantastic community support. You really feel appreciated.

What's the biggest selling point when talking to a recruit about Colorado State?
The support that we get here. We're family-first, and we get a lot of support from administration, the university and our fans. You feel wanted, and you feel part of something special because of the support here.

What types of people do you aim to develop your players into?
We want to develop them as citizens and community members. We want these players to learn to be good ambassadors to the university and the program; that is important to me. I want them also to learn to bond with each other and make great friends with this core support group. That will enhance their experience, as well.

What opportunities do players have after competing in Fort Collins?
We've had a lot of student-athletes graduate here before going on to careers overseas. We've had three U.S. National team members and three Canadian National team members, plus countless professional contracts all over the world. What we want to do is prepare our athletes to live their dreams. If their dream is to be a college volleyball player here, we certainly want to give them that experience. Then, after that, if they want to continue to play and expand their game, we want to try and help them do that. We hope that they flourish even past CSU. A lot of players get better from ages 21-25, which is really neat to see.

What is it like to play in Moby Arena?
There's no doubt, it's one of the best venues for volleyball in the United States, hands down. It's a big arena, but it's small and intimate enough that at a volleyball match you feel like there's a lot of people there — and a lot of times at our matches there are! It's the perfect size, it's aesthetically a beautiful place. I really do think it's one of the best places in the country, and it's one of the reasons I love it here so much.

What do you look for in a recruit?
The first thing we look for is if the kid is physical enough to be at or among the best in the Mountain West. Once they pass that test, we start to look for character elements, like are they a good student? A good teammate? Are they going to be someone who's willing to come in and be part of this family and grow every day? If they have all of those characteristics, we want them to be part of this special program.

BROOK COULTER

Associate Head Coach | Fourth Season at CSU | California, '01

Brook Coulter joined the Colorado State volleyball coaching staff on Jan. 26, 2012, as associate head coach, and completed her third season with the program in 2014. With her diverse background, Coulter works with all aspects of the program, including first-contact defense, outside hitting and as the team's recruiting coordinator.

By coaching at CSU, Coulter was able to return to her hometown. A 1996 graduate of Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Coulter spent her childhood watching CSU volleyball. She attended matches at Moby Arena, and beginning at the age of 14, even kept a three-ring binder full of newspaper clippings.

In just three seasons as associate head coach, she has made a lasting impact on the volleyball program. The Rams have won three-straight Mountain West championships with Coulter's assistance, and from 2013-14, held a .922 winning percentage - the best two-year mark in program history and the second-best in the nation during those two seasons. After going 21-8 in 2012, Coulter's first with the Rams, CSU began the 2013 season with 27-straight victories en route to a program-best .933 winning percentage (28-2). A year later, the Rams were just as good, going 31-3, ranking as high as No. 6 nationally and advancing to the NCAA Regional Semifinals.

Over the past three seasons, CSU has earned 13 All-Mountain West selections and eight AVCA All-Region nods, and Coulter has developed a floor defense that ranks among the best in school history. In 2013, CSU's defense recorded a .953 reception percentage, while the Rams set a school record with a .926 serve percentage and ranked in the top 10 nationally with a .299 hitting percentage.

Coulter has tutored some of the program's top defensive specialists, including Izzy Gaulia - who ranks third for career digs - Cassidy Denny - whose .952 serve percentage in 2013 ranked second all-time for a true freshman - and Jaime Colaizzi - a 2014 All-Mountain West Honorable Mention selection. In 2014, Colaizzi became the 11th CSU player to ever reach 1,000 career digs, and she's expected to finish her career ranked in the top three of CSU's record books.

Away from the court, she plays a large role in CSU's development process as the program's recruiting coordinator. She is also instrumental to the Rams' academic success, which has been shown with the team's 25 Mountain West Academic All-Conference selections during Coulter's three-year tenure in Fort Collins, in addition to an Academic All-American.

Prior to her time at CSU, Coulter spent one season (2011) as an assistant coach at Georgia, training the Bulldogs' outside hitters and liberos, as well as coordinating camps, planning freshman transition and working with academics.

Before her stint in Athens, Coulter was an assistant coach at Denver for four seasons (2007-10). There, she worked with the team's outside hitters and defensive specialists, in addition to many off-the-court aspects of the program. The Pioneers went 77-54 during her tenure, including a program-best 25-7 mark in 2008.

Her coaching career began as a volunteer assistant at Nevada in 2002, where she organized summer camps and maintained a recruiting database. After one season in Reno, however, she put coaching on hold to continue her playing career.

She played professionally in Europe from 2002-07, competing for teams in Slovenia, Austria, Spain, Germany and Holland. She was also employed by Bring It Promotions, where she directed and organized international tours throughout Slovenia and eastern Europe.

In college, Coulter was a four-year starter and three-year captain at California. The outside hitter was named to the Pac-10 All-Freshman team in 1996 and was a two-time member of the Pac-10 Honorable Mention squad. Today, she still ranks first all-time in Cal's record book for career service aces (162) and aces in a match (nine). She finished her career ranked sixth for digs (1,121) and seventh for kills (966), and in 1998, her 56 aces ranked fourth nationally.

As a senior in 1999, she was coached by long-time CSU Head Coach Rich Feller. Coulter was a two-sport athlete, also competing with the women's basketball team for one season.

Away from the college level, Coulter has a wealth of experience with the international game.

In 2014, she was an assistant coach for the U.S. Girls' Youth National Team, earning a silver medal at the NORCECA Women's U-18 Continental Championship in Costa Rica and a berth in the 2015 FIVB Women's U-18 World Championship.

Coulter served as head coach for the 2013 USA Future Select National Training Program, working with the top athletes under 13 years of age. In 2010 and 2011, she was an assistant coach for the USA Volleyball Women's A2 Junior National Team in England and for the Global Challenge in Croatia, winning a gold medal. She was the head coach for USA Volleyball's 2009 High Performance A3 camp, and the year prior, in 2008, was an assistant on the bronze medal-winning USA Women's A2 Volleyball Open Adult Championship team.

Additionally, Coulter founded the Green Valley Ranch U-12 Starlings club program. In June 2009, the Starlings captured a bronze medal at the Starlings National Championship in San Diego, Calif. As a student-athlete at Cal, she coached the Golden Bear Volleyball Club.

Coulter earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in integrative biology in 2001 from California, and was a physical therapy aide at the Nevada Physical Therapy-Orthopedic and Sports Rehabilitation Clinic upon graduation. Her parents still live in Fort Collins.

LUKE MURRAY

Assistant Coach | Second Season at CSU | Penn State, '08

Luke Murray completed his first season with the Colorado State volleyball coaching staff in 2014. The assistant coach was hired by Head Coach Tom Hilbert on May 20, 2014. Murray works with the team's middle blockers, in addition to being the program's scouting coordinator and handling a large portion of its recruiting.

In his first season on the Rams bench, CSU had a banner season, going 31-3 - the second-best winning percentage (.912) and second-highest win total in program history. The Rams won the Mountain West, were ranked as high as No. 6 nationally and advanced to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament.

Murray helped mentor five All-Mountain West selections in 2014, including middle blocker Kelsey Snider - who led the team in blocking - and Deedra Foss - who was named the Mountain West Player of the Year and the first AVCA All-America setter in school history.

As a team, CSU ranked high in several statistical categories, including 27th for blocking, averaging 2.67 per set. Additionally, Murray helped CSU to a .280 hitting percentage (seventh in the NCAA), .151 opponent hitting percentage (12th), 13.23 assists per set (17th) and 14.18 kills (18th). CSU was the only team in the country to rank in the top 30 for each category.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Collins, Murray spent two seasons (2012-13) as an assistant at East Tennessee State. With the Buccaneers, he guided the team to a pair of conference titles and a 45-22 overall record. In 2012, ETSU went 23-13 and appeared in the school's first-ever NCAA tournament after running the table during the Atlantic-Sun tournament. A year later, the Buccaneers went 22-9 and won the regular-season title.

Murray worked with the ETSU setters, the position he won a national championship at while playing for Penn State. As ETSU's top assistant, he also served as the team's recruiting coordinator and assisted with scouting and academics.

ETSU setter Jamie Rutledge averaged 10.79 assists per set in 2013 (52nd in NCAA), in addition to earning several community service and leadership awards. Murray also coached Megan Devine, the 2012 Atlantic-Sun Player of the Year and tournament MVP. Devine was also named a 2013 AVCA All-America Honorable Mention. Aside from setting, ETSU's offense was in the top 50 nationally for hitting percentage in 2013, and on defense, the Buccaneers ranked 19th in the NCAA with 2.77 blocks per set.

Even with a successful start to his coaching career, Murray is best known for his playing experience. The former setter helped Penn State to a national title in 2008, being named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team. As a senior that year, Murray was also tabbed as an AVCA second-team All-America selection and the AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week on March 27, 2008.

The two-time captain and first-team All-EIVA selection finished his career with 3,191 assists, which ranks seventh all-time in Penn State history. The Nittany Lions advanced to the semifinals or national championship all four years Murray was on the roster (2005-08). He played for head coach Mark Pavlik.

Following his collegiate career, Murray trained with the U.S. National Team in Anaheim, Calif., under Hugh McCutcheon and Alan Knipe (2008-09, spring 2011). From there, Murray played professionally in Cyprus and Puerto Rico (2009-12).

Murray spent three summers as a volleyball clinician with U.S. Elite Volleyball (2011-13), where he co-ran a clinic designed to help coaches implement effective practice methods. Prior to that, he spent two summers (2009-10) as the lead coach for Gold Medal Squared.

Away from the court, Murray has helped his players to plenty of success in the classroom. During the 2012-13 academic year, ETSU held a 3.59 grade-point average, with four student-athletes being placed on the Atlantic-Sun All-Academic Team, and during his first season at CSU seven players earned Mountain West Academic All-Conference honors.

Murray, a native of Washington, Pa., graduated from Penn State in 2008 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He is married to the former Kendall Grow.

BRI OLMSTEAD

Director of Operations | Eighth Season at CSU | Colorado State, '06

Former Rams standout Bri Olmstead completed her seventh season as a full-time member with the Colorado State staff in 2014, and third as the program's director of operations. She is responsible for all off-the-court duties, including scheduling, travel logistics and the organization of CSU's summer camps. She is the program's first-ever director of operations, a position which was created prior to the 2012 season.

Olmstead, formerly Bri Frech, first joined the Rams as a player in 2003 after spending her freshman and sophomore seasons at Salt Lake City Community College. During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Olmstead was a consistent starter for the Rams, earning All-Mountain West (2004) and MW Championships honors (2003, 2004) while leading CSU to NCAA bids both years and a combined 56-9 record (.862). As a junior, CSU advanced to the NCAA Regional Semifinals, and during Olmstead's senior season, the Rams were ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Olmstead was a rare six-rotation middle blocker due to her exceptional serving and passing ability.

Today, she still ranks first in CSU volleyball history with 0.41 aces per set, totaling 92 over her two-year career. Her 1.22 career blocks-per-set average ranks sixth, and her .956 reception percentage ranks seventh. In 2003, she recorded 51 service aces, the sixth-most in CSU single-season history. Olmstead holds several of CSU's top individual single-match marks, as well, including a .654 hitting percentage (19-2-26) against Florida A&M on Aug. 30, 2003 (third-best for five-set matches), seven aces vs. New Mexico on Nov. 15, 2003 (tied-second for three-set matches) and 10 block assists on two occasions (tied-second for three-set matches).

Off the court, she was an outstanding student-athlete, something she's been able to carry over as a member of the Rams staff. Olmstead was a two-time Mountain West Academic All-Conference selection, and in 2003-04 became the program's first-ever Mountain West Scholar-Athlete.

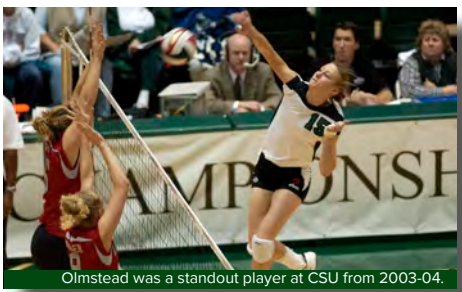
In 2005, Olmstead served as a student-assistant for the Rams while completing her degree. She then played professionally in France for MVS La Rochette during the 2006 season. Her club finished second in the French league that year.

Olmstead returned to Fort Collins in 2007 to pursue a career in coaching. She was the team's video and statistics coordinator during the 2007 season, before joining the staff full-time as an assistant coach from 2008-11. As an assistant, her emphasis was on first-contact defense, serving and scouting.

She tutored the school's top libero, Katelin Batten, who holds the CSU record for career digs. On the serving end, CSU set a program record for serve percentage in 2011, effectively serving at a 92.4 percent rate. The statistic began being tracked in 2001, and from 2009 to 2011, all under Olmstead, CSU had its top three percentages at the time.

From 2008-11, CSU won three conference titles and advanced as far as the 2009 NCAA Round of 16. CSU's overall record with Olmstead on the bench as an assistant coach was 98-24 (.803), including at least one NCAA tournament victory each year. Of Olmstead's 11 seasons with CSU, in any capacity, the Rams have won nine regular-season conference titles, in addition to three conference tournament championships in four tries. CSU has played in the NCAA tournament all 11 seasons with Olmstead.

A native of Eschwege, Germany, she received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from CSU in 2005. She is married to Charlie Olmstead and the couple has two daughters - Lilly, 3, and newborn Alexandra James.



Olmstead was a standout player at CSU from 2003-04.

AWARDS & HONORS
- Bom Squad MVP (2013)
- Mountain West Academic All-Conference (2013)

2014 (SOPHOMORE): Started 25 matches for the Rams, averaging 1.48 kills and 0.90 blocks per set... Finished Mountain West play ranked 12th for blocking (1.05 per set)... Led the MW in kills and blocks for conference matches after the first week of conference play, averaging 2.14 per set in both categories (9/28)... Set a career best with nine blocks in a four-set win at Utah State (9/25)... Also added a season-high-tying nine kills... After ties at six consecutive points in Set 2, CSU went on a 5-0 run, including three blocks from Andrews... Two days later, led CSU with six blocks at Boise State (9/27), in addition to six kills on .417 hitting (6-1-12)... Tallied a match-best seven blocks, in addition to a season-high-tying nine kills on .350 hitting, at San Diego State (10/30)... Had seven kills and zero errors in wins over UNLV (10/2; 7-0-14) and UTEP (9/13; 7-0-12)... Late in Set 2 at No. 18 Arizona State, had a kill and two blocks during a 7-0 run to help the Rams come from behind and take a 2-0 lead in the match... Had a season-high-tying nine kills, in addition to a team-leading three blocks, in a win vs. No. 9 BYU (9/12)... In a come-from-behind Set-2 victory, had a kill and block during a 4-0 run to give CSU the lead... Had six kills on her first seven swings at Northern Colorado, finishing the night with seven (.455 hitting) and three blocks... Hit .471 (4-0-7) in a three-set win over UC Santa Barbara (8/30)... All four kills came in the first set, the final one giving CSU a 21-20 lead - one it would hold for good after 12 ties and five lead changes.

2013 (FRESHMAN): Appeared in 27 sets, recording 39 kills and 16 blocks... In her first collegiate start (at Denver, Sept. 10), posted 10 kills on .500 hitting, in addition to a team-most six blocks... Tallied nine kills and zero errors at a .692

KATIE CRAIG

FR • Defensive Specialist • 5-9
Newport Beach, Calif. (Corona del Mar)

7

HIGH SCHOOL: Will be a 2015 graduate of Corona del Mar High School in Newport Beach, Calif. ... Named the 2014 CIF Southern Division 1AA Player of the Year... Earned Pacific Coast League MVP honors in 2014... Was a two-time All-Pacific Coast League selection... Helped her high school to a league title all three seasons she was on the roster, including a CIF Southern Section Division IAA semifinals appearance as a senior in 2014... As a senior, totaled 347 kills, 164 digs and 25 blocks.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 18, 1996, in Long Beach, Calif. ... Raised in Newport Beach, Calif. ... Parents are Mark and Linda Craig... Mother, the former Linda Mickelson, played volleyball at San Diego State... Has an older sister, Sarah... Intends to study business administration with a minor in communications.

HILBERT ON CRAIG: "Katie is a very good player, and I'm excited that she chose to play for the Rams. She earned countless accolades in one of the toughest leagues in the United States. She brings intensity and gamesmanship, and can do it all."

CRAIG ON CSU: "I knew I wanted to go to CSU when I went to one of their summer camps. The whole program seemed like a family, and everyone was so inviting. Coach Hilbert was so nice, and seemed like a coach who treats his players well and cares for them. I liked the way he coached, too."

JULIA CUBBEDGE

FR • Opposite Hitter/Setter • 5-8
Murrieta, Calif. (Chaparral)

HIGH SCHOOL: Will be a 2015 graduate of Chaparral High School in Temecula, Calif. ... Was a four-year varsity starter... Earned team MVP honors as a junior and senior... Named a 2014 Prep Volleyball Senior Ace Honorable Mention... Earned three first-team All-Southwestern League honors... Was a two-time Press Enterprise and two-time Valley News first-team selection... Plays club for 951 Elite Club.

PERSONAL: Born June 29, 1997, in Encinitas, Calif. ... Hometown is Murrieta, Calif. ... Parents are Teresa and Bart Cubbedge... Intends to study health & exercise science, with interest in nursing after graduation.

HILBERT ON CUBBEDGE: "She's an excellent all-around volleyball player," Hilbert said. "She can set, she has a great arm and her volleyball IQ is really high. She's smaller than the player that we normally recruit, but we feel like she's going to be effective for us because she can do a lot of different things, and do them well. She's used to playing against players bigger than her, and she makes up for it by the way she plays."

CUBBEDGE ON CSU: "What stood out to me about Colorado State compared to other schools was the overall experience. I loved the girls, the team atmosphere and the community in general. I want to contribute to CSU's winning tradition and be a part of this program."

PERSONAL: Born in Denver, Colo. ... Raised in Aurora, Colo. ... Mother is Kathryn Dahlstrom... Has an older sister, Lauren... Is studying psychology.

HILBERT ON REID: "It's rare to get a player for just one season, but Alex is worth it. We're familiar with her because we recruited her out of high school. She's developed into a great six-rotation player and is very athletic. Even know she'll be new, I see Alex as a leader on this team because she provided leadership at her previous school. We will use her in a number of ways."

REID ON CSU: "I wanted to go someplace that was close to home, and CSU has not only a great academic program, but an outstanding athletic program. It's really exciting, and I feel fortunate that Tom and the rest of the coaching staff invited me into the Ram family."

2015 SEASON OUTLOOK

Adrianna Culbert was named Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year. The senior is CSU's leading returning hitter and is a two-time AVCA honorable mention All-American.

Senior libero Jaime Colaizzi was named to the 2015 All-Mountain West Preseason Team.

The Colorado State volleyball team will enter the 2015 season ranked 12th in the AVCA Division I Coaches' Poll and as the favorite to win the Mountain West conference title for the seventh-straight year. The expectations are high yet again, with good reason – the Rams reached the Sweet 16 in 2014 and finished with a 31-3 overall record, closing the season ranked 12th in the country.

THE RETURNING RAMS

CSU returns five starters and their senior libero, Jaime Colaizzi. Among the returnees is senior hitter Adrianna Culbert, who was selected as the Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year.

Culbert, who is a two-time AVCA honorable mention All-American and all-conference honoree, became the first Ram to receive Preseason Player of the Year recognition since Dana Cranston in 2012. Culbert, a native of Delton, Michigan, posted 2.45 kills and 3.26 digs per set and converted kills at a .312 rate. She has been named All-AVCA Pacific North Region the last two years, and was named espnW National Player of the Week on Oct. 15, 2014.

Colaizzi was also named to the All-Mountain West Preseason Team. Colaizzi was named honorable mention All-Mountain West last season after totaling 468 digs, the third-most in CSU history. Her 4.14 digs per set were fifth all-time at CSU, and she recorded double-digit digs in 26 matches.

Also returning for the Rams is sophomore outside hitter Jasmine Hanna, who ranked second on the team in kills (328) last season. The total was the third-highest for a freshman in program history. Hanna's kills per set average, 2.98, ranked ninth in the conference, and her 2.90 clip during league play was sixth among all outside hitters.

Middle blocker Alexandra Poletto, also a sophomore, returns as the Rams' leader in blocks from 2014 (1.17 per set). Her blocks total was third-highest among all freshmen in program history. She was also an efficient attacker, converting on .363 of her attacks into kills, including a stellar .847 (12-0-4) rate in her first career start against Florida A&M. The .847 clip was the second best in a single match in CSU history.

Junior defensive specialist Cassidy Denny started 33 of 34 matches last year and played in every set. Denny was fourth on the team in both digs per set (1.83) and service aces (17), recording at least one service ace in six of the final seven regular-season matches. Denny recorded a season-high 14 digs at UNLV on Nov. 1.

Redshirt junior middle blocker Acacia Andrews started 25 matches in 2014 and was of the league's strongest blockers, posting 1.05 blocks per set in Mountain West play. Andrews had a season-high nine blocks at Utah State in September.

Sophomore outside hitter Sanja Cizmic battled injuries for a portion of the season, but showed promise in her 16 matches, which included four starts. Cizmic posted 11 kills with a .562 success rate against Florida A&M.

Senior setter Crystal Young appeared in 15 matches last season, earning one start against North Carolina Central. Young recorded 33 assists, two kills, five digs and three blocks in that match.

2015 NEWCOMERS

Multiple Rams will look to make their CSU debut in the 2015 season.

Senior Alex Reid enters the Rams' rotation after playing the last three seasons at Long Beach State. Reid, a native of Aurora, earned First Team All-Big West a year ago. Over the past two seasons, Reid played in 61 matches and averaged 2.84 kills, 2.51 digs and 0.54 blocks per set during that span.

Junior setter and defensive specialist Grace Gordon will be eligible after sitting out last season following her transfer from the University of Colorado-Colorado Springs. Gordon averaged 9.57 assists per set as a sophomore at UC-CS, playing in 27 matches and making 25 starts.

Four freshmen have joined the CSU squad as well. Katie Craig, a defensive specialist from Newport Beach, California, will look to help strengthen the Rams defense immediately in 2015. Julia Cubbedge, an opposite hitter and setter from Murrieta, Calif., could play a versatile role on the front row for CSU. Kirstie Hillyer, a 6-foot-6 middle blocker and outside hitter from Bayfield, Colorado, has impressed in preseason camps and could provide a lot of big plays at the net this season. Jessica Jackson, also a middle blocker and outside hitter from Colorado, will likely sit out the 2015 season due to injury, but will be a force on the attack in the coming years. Sophomore defensive specialist and Fort Collins-native Mariah Green has also joined the team as a walk-on.

2015 SCHEDULE PREVIEW

The most home matches since 2010, six contests against NCAA tournament participants and a Regional Semifinal rematch are just a few highlights of the 2015 Colorado State volleyball schedule.

"I'm really excited about how our schedule shaped up," Head Coach Tom Hilbert. "We are playing several really good teams and get to play a lot of games in front of our fans."

The 29-match slate begins at Moby Arena on Friday, Aug. 28, as the Rams play host to the Baylor Bears. The match is the first of 17 home contests this fall. Also that weekend, CSU will host UC Davis and Northern Iowa, part of a home tournament.

The Rams remain on their home court the following week (Sept. 4-8) to face three teams -- each of which participated in the NCAA tournament a year ago. Arizona State highlights the weekend, followed by matches against Western Michigan and Northern Colorado. The Sun Devils finished the 2014 season ranked in the top 25, and last year in Tempe, Ariz., took CSU to five sets before the Rams began the final frame on a 9-0 run.

CSU will leave the Centennial State for the first time on Sunday, Sept. 13, but the competition doesn't get any easier. The Rams open the weekend against Iona, before facing Texas later that afternoon in Austin. The rematch of last year's Regional Semifinal match pits the Rams against a team which has advanced to the Final Four in seven of the past eight seasons. Like CSU, the Longhorns have taken advantage of their home-court environment, winning 39 of their past 41 matches at Gregory Gym.

CSU will remain in the Lone Star State, traveling to College Station for a Tuesday night match against Texas A&M (Sept. 15). The Aggies also competed in the postseason a year ago, and will be CSU's return trip from two years ago when CSU beat Texas A&M at home to finish non-conference play undefeated.

"I think Texas could once again be a Final Four team," Hilbert said. "That week in Texas will really test us, as will the weeks leading up to it."

The Rams will return to Moby Arena for their final tuneup before conference play begins, hosting Eastern Kentucky on Sept. 20. However, the match won't be the team's final non-conference date of the season. Wanting to prep the team before what is hopefully another NCAA tournament run, Hilbert scheduled a late-season match against Iowa State. The Rams and Cyclones will play on Saturday, Nov. 28, a day before the NCAA tournament bracket is revealed. Iowa State finished 2014 with a first-round NCAA tournament victory and a final RPI ranking of 17.

"One of the matches I'm most excited about is the late-season match against Iowa State," Hilbert said. "Neither of us had a conference match that weekend, and both wanted to schedule a challenging team leading up to the NCAA tournament."

As it always is, the focus of the season will be to win an unprecedented seventh-consecutive Mountain West championship. To do so, the Rams will have to knock off 10 teams which will all be targeting them. The conference season begins Sept. 24 at home against Utah State and concludes Nov. 24 at Wyoming. In between, CSU will play Air Force, Boise State, Nevada, New Mexico, San Diego State, San José State, Utah State and Wyoming twice. The Rams will play Fresno State (home) and UNLV (away) just once.

"I think the Mountain West will be much improved," Hilbert said. "Each team has made it a conscious effort to improve their strength of schedule, and I think there will be several teams challenging us for the conference title. I think more than one Mountain West team will get into the tournament this year."

Preseason Player of the Year:
Adrianna Culbert, Colorado State

Thoughts from Head Coach Tom Hilbert:

On the season ahead...
"In my opinion, we are one of the best we've ever been in the areas of ball-handling, service receive and defense. We've got experience in those positions, we have good players in those positions and we have multiple players who can do those things. Frankly, right now, our defense is way ahead of our defense. Our defense is good, they know the hitters on this team, and they are very, very effective. We have good players in all hitting positions, but we are not very deep. We have some players coming off of injuries that we are nursing back to health right now. We are trying to keep practices short, but intense."

On the setter position...
"We graduated a very good setter last year (Deedra Foss). We now are going through the paces with four different setters on this team to try to figure out who we are going to end up playing. It's likely you will see a lot of different players playing in that position. We are toying with the idea of playing a 6-2, which is a system where you have two setters rotating through the back row. If one of those happens to be Adrianna Culbert, she will also rotate through the front row. We will stick with that concept for about a week and a half. Setters are all different, and they need to learn to be consistent with their tempo and location of the ball. We are not going to be a complicated team, but I'd like to play fast, if we can."

On what can be expected from this team...
"This team will be exciting. The reason is, we play great defense and we will continue to play great defense. We also serve tough and will serve-receive well. It should allow us to get a lot of balls to a lot of different players. We just have to get more terminal. If we can terminate balls against our own defense, we can terminate balls against any defense. We have some really good defenders players playing in the back court for us."

RAMS VOLLEYBALL #NETWORK#

The Ram Volleyball NETwork is a support club providing discretionary funds to Coach Hilbert and the Colorado State Volleyball team. The funds are used for budget relief and special needs for the program allowing CSU Volleyball to go beyond ordinary and achieve excellence. NETwork members receive special invitations to events and get an inside look at the Ram Volleyball program. Among those special events is the preseason NETwork/media BBQ, held annually in the Bob Davis Hall at Moby Arena.

2014 IN REVIEW

The 2014 volleyball season was a continuation of success for Colorado State, as the team finished with a 31-3 record, won its sixth straight Mountain West title and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in program history.

The Rams' winning percentage (.912) was the second-highest in school history, and dating back to the start of the 2013 season, CSU is 59-5 (.922), the best two-year stretch in program history and the second-best winning percentage in the nation during that stretch.

CSU's 31 wins featured an 18-match unbeaten streak, beginning with a sweep over Denver on Sept. 9 and lasting all the way through the month of October. The Rams won their first 11 conference matches, finishing 17-1 in Mountain West play on the year and leading the conference wire-to-wire. In the Mountain West's 16-year history, CSU has won 12 regular season championships. Seniors Deedra Foss, Marlee Reynolds and Kelsey Snider graduated with five Mountain West titles in their careers.

Dating back to September 2013, CSU has been ranked in 29-consecutive polls. The Rams were ranked as high as No. 6 in 2014, the highest since 2004, and finished the year No. 12, the best end-of-year national rank since 2001. The Rams have been ranked in the final poll in six of the last seven seasons.

The Rams were chosen to host NCAA tournament sub-regional matches at Moby Arena, marking the 11th time in program history that CSU has hosted NCAA postseason matches in Fort Collins. The Rams swept Denver in the first round before beating Colorado, 3-2, in a five-set thriller to advance to the Sweet 16.

Moby Arena was raucous all season long, with an average of 3,231 fans per match in 2014. That mark ranked sixth in the NCAA and was the second-highest season average in program history. CSU's match against Wisconsin on Sept. 6 drew a CSU and Mountain West record 7,018 fans. Including that match, the Rams eclipsed 5,000 fans three times, with meetings versus Denver (5,399) and Colorado (6,011) each providing crowds that rank in the top-eight single-match showings in school history.

CSU went 16-1 at home and has gone 56-4 in Moby Arena dating back to the beginning of the 2011 season. The Rams were also exceptional on the road, going 12-1 in true road matches. From Oct. 27, 2012 through Oct. 30, 2014, the Rams won 28-straight true road matches, a program record that also led the nation at the time.

The Rams also picked up three wins against ranked teams – BYU (No. 9), Arizona State (No. 18) and Colorado (No. 19). Five of CSU's opponents finished the year ranked, and four more were at least receiving votes in the polls at times during the season. BYU proceeded to play all the way to the national title match, marking the first time in CSU history that the Rams had beaten a team that advanced to the national championship.

The Rams won thir sixth consecutive Mountain West title in 2014 and reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament for the 10th time in program history.

Deedra Foss was named Mountain West Player of the Year and earned Third Team All-America recognition in 2014.

Adrianna Culbert was an All-Mountain West selection for the second time, and also earned honorable mention All-America honors.

Foss, the squad's senior setter, was named an AVCA All-American after being one of just two setters in the NCAA to rank in the top 10 in both assists and team hitting percentage. Foss became CSU's 14th all-time AVCA All-America selection, and finished her career with 4,833 assists, the most in program history since set lengths were changed from 30 to 25 points. For her efforts, Foss was also named the Mountain West Player of the Year.

Junior opposite hitter Adrianna Culbert received AVCA All-America Honorable Mention status, and was one of five Rams to earn All-Mountain West recognition, joining Foss, seniors Marlee Reynolds and Kelsey Snider and junior Jaime Colaizzi.

Kelsey Snider was named All-Mountain West after leading all CSU middle blockers with 2.90 kills and 3.78 points per set.

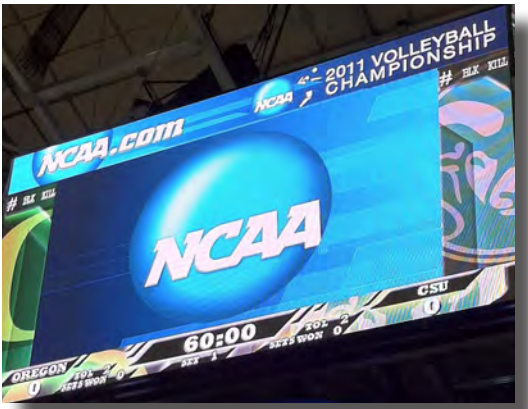
A WINNING TRADITION

TOURNAMENT STREAKING

Postseason play year in and year out is an expectation at CSU. In fact, one would have to look back to 1994 to find the last time the Rams were not in the NCAA tournament. In all, CSU has been to 26 of the 34 all-time tournaments, including 20 in a row.

Just 12 Division I teams have earned more tournament berths than CSU, and the Rams' stretch of 20 consecutive appearances is the seventh-longest active streak in the country.



Not only does CSU get to the tournament on an annual basis, but the team wins when it gets there. The Rams have been to the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) on 10 occasions — most recently in 2014 — and won their opening-round match five consecutive seasons from 2007-11.

Over the years, Moby Arena has been a host site for NCAA tournament matches 12 times, including the 2008 Regional Finals. The Rams have had tremendous success on their home court, going 15-2 in tournament matches at Moby Arena.

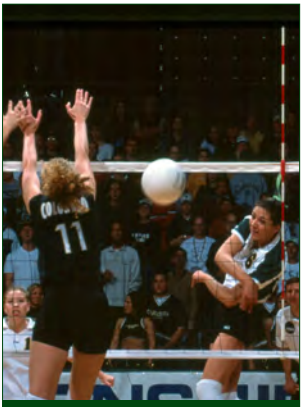
The 1998 Rams made their third consecutive trip to the second round of the NCAA tournament behind a double-double (12k, 18d) from Krista Swartzendruber.

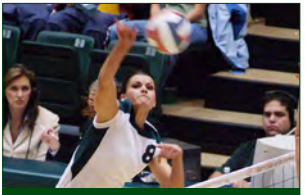
In the 1999 NCAA tournament, Catie Vagneur averaged 5.0 kills per set to lead CSU to the regional semifinal for the first time under Tom Hilbert.

Summer Jennings was named to the NCAA Pacific Region all-tournament team after recording three solo blocks against perennial powerhouse Penn State in the 2000 regional semifinals.



The Rams advanced to the regional semifinal round of the NCAA tournament for the third consecutive year in 2001. Soraya Santos played the hero for the Rams in a thrilling second-round victory over rival Colorado at Moby Arena, securing an ace late in the fifth set, to help CSU rally for a 16-14 win after trailing 13-9.

Michelle Knox recorded 19 kills on .484 hitting against Washington in the 2002 NCAA tournament.



Casey Bauer led the Rams to their fourth regional semifinal in five seasons in 2003, tallying 15 kills in two matches, including seven on .500 hitting at No. 25 Maryland.

Melissa Courtney totaled 66 assists vs. Purdue in the 2004 NCAA tournament. She also added two aces to tie the CSU career tournament record.

Dre Downs turned in one of the best matches in school history with 29 kills, six blocks and a .538 hitting percentage in a first-round victory over rival Colorado during the 2005 NCAA tournament.

Jaime Strauss led CSU with 22 kills and 18 digs against the defending national champion Washington Huskies in the first round of the 2006 NCAA tournament.

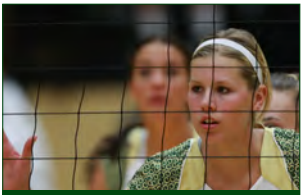
Katelin Batten broke her own CSU single-season digs record, adding 15 in a first-round victory over Illinois State in the 2007 NCAA tournament.

Setter Ashley Fornstrom totaled 52 assists in a four-set win over FIU in the 2008 NCAA tournament. She also added 6.0 total points.

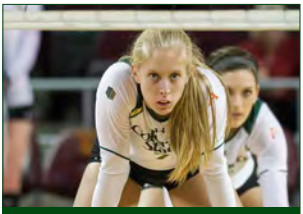
Tessa Nelson was selected to the NCAA tournament all-region team for the Minneapolis site, leading CSU to a regional semifinal appearane in 2009 after an upset win over No. 6 Washington at Moby Arena. Teammate Danielle Minch secured 51 kills in three matches, including 19 on .324 hitting in the win over the Huskies.



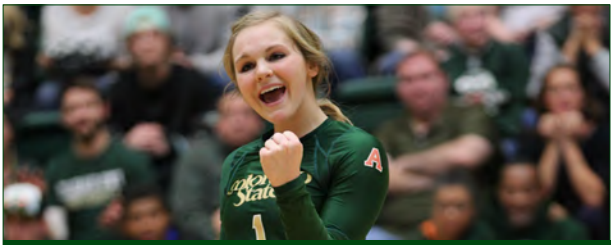
Megan Plourde set a CSU record with 19 total blocks in a 2010 NCAA tournament victory over No. 24 Cal State Fullerton. The Rams trailed 2-0 before earning the comeback win.

Katelyn Steffan helped CSU to a five-set win over No. 13 Oregon in the 2011 NCAA tournament, tallying 15 kills and eight digs.

Freshman Adrianna Culbert earned valuable playing time in the 2012 NCAA tournament match vs. No. 22 Purdue, totaling five kills on .300 hitting, in addition to six digs.



In the 2013 NCAA tournament, Kelsey Snider hit .762 with 16 kills, including kills on her first 12 swings. The junior added two aces and a team-best seven blocks.



Jaime Colaizzi had 15 digs as CSU beat No. 19 Colorado to reach the Sweet 16 in the 2014 NCAA tournament.

CHAMPIONS ON THE COURT

Since the Mountain West's inception in 1999, the Rams have been stalwarts in the league, winning 12 of the 16 regular-season titles. Additionally, CSU has earned five Mountain West Championships crowns in nine seasons (the tournament ran from 1999-06 and again in 2011). The 17 total championships is more than all other Mountain West schools combined — past and present.

CSU finished at the top of the regular-season standings again in 2014, earning its sixth consecutive title. CSU is the only school in the nation to have won its conference title each of the past six seasons.

In 2015, CSU will vie for its seventh consecutive championship, a feat that has never been accomplished before. The Rams also won five straight regular-season titles from 2000-04. For those who have played four seasons under Head Coach Tom Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three players winning at least three. Marlee Reynolds, Deedra Foss and Kelsey Snider finished their careers at CSU in 2014 with five titles to their credit.

In 15 years with the MW, CSU has won or shared the regular-season or tournament championship in all but two seasons. The program also boasts titles from both the Western Athletic Conference (1998 Mountain Division) and the High County Athletic Conference (1984, '85), totaling 19 overall conference championships, more than any other sport at CSU.

Other MW notes:

>> The Rams hold an all-time record of 215-33 (.867) in MW matches.
>> From Nov. 4, 2005 to Nov. 15, 2013, CSU won 50 consecutive home matches against current members of the MW.
>> The MW had four teams ranked in the top 100 of the RPI - CSU (13), UNLV (58), Wyoming (61) and New Mexico (82)
>> Multiple MW schools have earned NCAA tournament appearances in all but three seasons, including three teams represented on five occasions.

2014 Mountain West >> Regular Season

31-3 Overall, 17-1 MW

The Rams lost just one match in conference play for the second straight year and spent most of the season ranked in the top 10 nationally en route to their sixth straight Mountain West title. Led by Third Team All-American and Mountain West Player of the Year, Deedra Foss, CSU reached the Sweet 16 and ended the season ranked No. 12. CSU also played in front of three of its top 10 largest home crowds of all time, including a school and conference-record 7,018 fans for the Rams' home match against Wisconsin. CSU also beat three ranked teams over the course of the season - No. 9 BYU, No. 18 Arizona State and No. 19 Colorado. Adrianna Culbert, Marlee Reynolds, Kelsey Snider and Jaime Colaizzi also earned all-MW accolades.

2013 Mountain West >> Regular Season

28-2 Overall, 19-1 MW

Expected to be a rebuilding year after graduating four senior starters from the year prior, CSU proved to be anything but, nearly running the table en route to a record-setting season. The Rams won their first 27 matches – a school and conference record – and remained undefeated into the final week of the season. CSU finished its Mountain West slate 19-1, winning its fifth consecutive regular-season title. Senior Samantha Peters was named the conference's Player of the Year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his ninth Coach of the Year honor and setter Deedra Foss was tabbed as the league's best setter. Two other Rams earned All-Mountain West honors. Additionally, senior Michelle Smith earned her fifth conference championship ring, becoming just the second Ram in program history to win five throughout her career.

2012 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co)

21-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

Losing their Mountain West opener for just the second time ever, the Rams rebounded from a rocky 3-2 start to conference play. Overall, CSU won 10 of its final 11 MW matches, including seven in a row to close out the year. CSU knocked off New Mexico on the final night of the regular season to be crowned conference champions for the fourth consecutive season. Senior Dana Cranston was named the MW Player of the Year, and three others joined her on the All-MW Team, including fellow seniors Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde. Those three, along with Izzy Gaulia, capped their collegiate careers winning four regular-season conference championships in four seasons.

2011 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

24-6 Overall, 12-2 MW

Returning just one senior, CSU exceeded expectations, leading the Mountain West wire to wire and winning its third straight regular-season title. Leading the way was senior Katelyn Steffan, the MW Player of the Year. Entering the MW Championships as the top seed, CSU accomplished two feats that had only been done once before. The Rams became the second No. 1 seed to win the Championships, also becoming the second team to sweep all three matches. Steffan was named the MW Championships MVP. Dana Cranston, Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde each earned postseason honors by the conference, while Deedra Foss was named the MW Newcomer of the Year and Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his eighth MW Coach of the Year award.

2010 Mountain West >> Regular Season

26-5 Overall, 14-2 MW

Despite the target on the Rams' backs, CSU led the league wire to wire for the second consecutive season en route to its second straight Mountain West title. Danielle Minch was named the league's Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. She was one of four seniors on the roster, three of which were four-year starters. Sophomore Megan Plourde and junior Evan Sanders were also honored by the conference, being named to the All-MW Team.

2009 Mountain West >> Regular Season

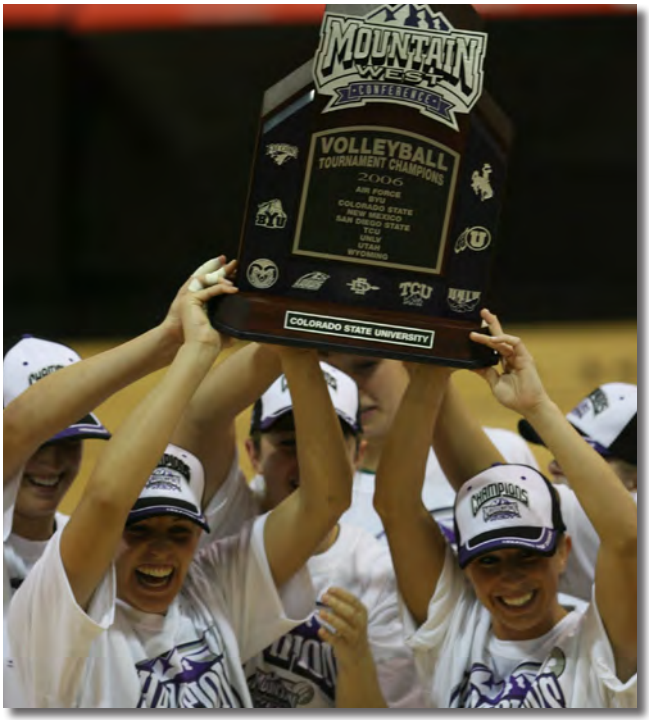
25-6 Overall, 15-1 MW

After opening the season 4-3, the CSU volleyball Team hit its stride in early September, winning 19 of 21 matches to close out the regular season. The Team rolled to a 15-1 mark in Mountain West action, claiming the program's seventh MW regular-season championship. Junior Danielle Minch was named MW Player of the Year, while senior Katelin Batten was tabbed the MW's top libero. Senior Tessa Nelson, sophomore Evan Sanders and freshman Megan Plourde each garnered all-MW honors. Head Coach Tom Hilbert was named MW Coach of the Year.

2007 Mountain West >> Regular Season

23-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

The 2007 season saw the Rams earn their sixth MW regular-season championship since 2000. Junior middle blocker Mekana Barnes was named the MW Player of the Year while junior setter Ashley Fornstorm earned all-conference honors as the Setter of the Year. Tonya Mokelki and Jaime Strauss also earned all-conference honors. The Rams went a perfect 14-0 at home including a perfect in MW play.



2006 Mountain West >> Tournament

20-10 Overall, 11-5 MW

The Rams captured their fourth tournament title in eight years as they upset No. 9 Utah in the championship match. In dramatic fashion, the Rams topped the Utes in five games. CSU trailed 20-11 in Game 3 and faced one match point before winning the third game 34-32 and then rolling to the title. Sophomore outside hitter Jaime Strauss was named the MVP of the tournament.

2004 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co) >> Tournament

21-9 Overall, 13-1 MW

In 2004, Colorado State won at least a share of the Mountain West regular-season title for a fifth straight season. CSU won its first five conference matches before falling to No. 18 Utah in four games in Moby. The Rams then rallied to win their final eight league matches, including a three-game sweep over the No. 17 Utes in Salt Lake in front of a national television audience (CSTV). Colorado State went on to become the first host school in league history to win the Mountain West tournament, winning its second straight automatic berth to the NCAA Championship.

2003 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

30-5 Overall, 14-0 MW

Colorado State became the first Team in Mountain West history to go through the regular season undefeated, and then became the first Team to ever win both the regular-season and tournament crowns in the same year, winning three matches at San Diego State. Nine of the 14 regular-season matches were three-game sweeps for the Rams, including six straight.

2002 Mountain West >> Regular Season

22-10 Overall, 12-2 MW

2002 was considered by many to be a rebuilding year, but CSU again proved to be the dominant Team in the league, posting a 12-2 record for its third consecutive title. The Rams won their first four matches, then fell in five games to BYU in Moby. Winning their next three matches in four games each, the Rams headed to San Diego State, where they were swept for the first time in 27 league matches -- a feat that had only happened three times in the existence of the Mountain West. CSU rebounded, however, to win its final four matches and again bring home the title.

2001 Mountain West >> Regular Season

29-4 Overall, 13-1 MW

Probably the most dominant Team in Mountain West history, the 2001 Rams posted a 13-1 record and won their first 11 matches -- all in three -game sweeps -- before falling in five games at Utah. They then went on to win the final three matches, again in three-game sweeps. That year, the Rams won 37 straight games, second longest in school history to the 40 straight by the 2000 squad.

2000 Mountain West >> Regular Season

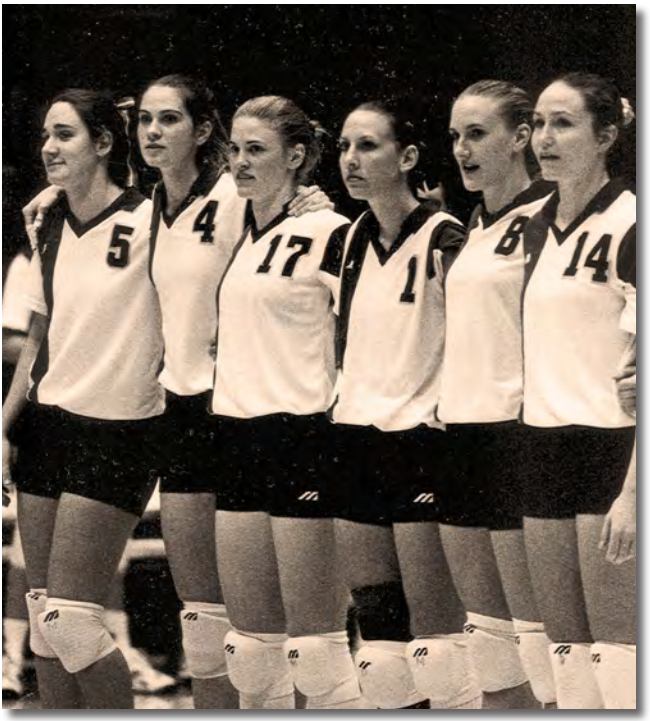
32-5 Overall, 13-1 MW

The 2000 Team started a streak of five straight regular-season titles, posting a 13-1 record with the only blemish being a three-game setback at BYU. The Rams started the conference season with eight three-game sweeps before losing to the Cougars. The Rams then defeated New Mexico in four, swept Air Force, defeated San Diego State in five and swept UNLV to win the title. In the tournament, BYU defeated the Rams in the championship match in Moby, snapping a record 44-match home winning streak.

1999 Mountain West >> Tournament

30-3 Overall, 12-2 MW

The Rams began their dominance in the newly created Mountain West. After a 12-2 mark in the inaugural season of MW play, the Rams dominated the postseason tournament to lock up an NCAA tournament berth. Five players earned all-conference recognition, led by tournament MVP Catie Vagneur.



1998 WAC >> Regular Season

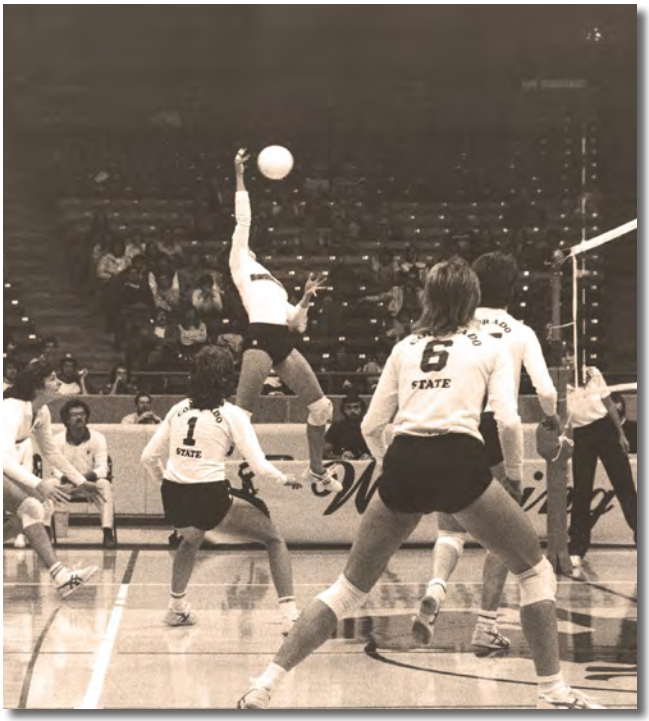
(Mountain Div.)

24-8 Overall, 12-2 WAC

Colorado State won its first conference title in 13 seasons winning the Mountain Division of the WAC in its final year in that conference. The Rams posted a 12-2 record, dropping only decisions at Rice and at UNLV. CSU won its first seven matches before losing in Houston, then tallied four straight three-game sweeps and a five-game thriller against Wyoming before losing in four to the Rebels. The Rams won their final match to enter the WAC tournament as the No. 1 seed in the Mountain Division.

1985 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 11-1 HCAC

In 1985 the Rams posted an 11-1 record in High Country Athletic Conference play to win their second straight title. CSU won its first nine matches before losing at No. 18 BYU, and then swept Wyoming and Utah State for the second conference title in school history.



1984 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 12-0 HCAC

The very first conference volleyball title for Colorado State came in 1984 with an undefeated record in High Country Athletic Conference play. The Rams recorded five of their 12 wins with three-game sweeps and an impressive 4-0 record in five-game matches, including the last two at New Mexico State and New Mexico to remain unbeaten.

With annual success on the court, the country has taken note of the Colorado State volleyball program and the type of athletes the school develops. In its history, CSU has produced 14 AVCA All-Americans, which ranks 18th in the nation.

Over the last four seasons, CSU has had four All-America selections, including two players in 2011 – Megan Plourde and Katelyn Steffan. It marked just the fourth time that two Rams teammates have been selected during the same season.

In addition to the 14 AVCA All-America selections, CSU has produced four Volleyball Magazine All-Americans and 25 honorable mentions. What's more, the Rams have earned 46 AVCA All-Region nods, including at least two each season since 2007. Plourde, who wrapped up her career in 2012, became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Region selection.

Deedra Foss | McKenna, Wash. | Third Team (2014)

Deedra Foss closed her stellar CSU career by earning Third Team All-America honors and receiving Mountain West Player of the Year recognition. Foss was one of the elite setters in the country in 2014, and was one of only two players to rank in the top 10 for assists while her team ranked in the top 10 in hitting percentage. Foss, who was named the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week on Nov. 25, 2014, also led all setters in the region in blocks with 0.73. Foss was also an All-MW selection in 2012 and 2013 - including being the designated setter as a junior, and in 2011 was the conference's Newcomer of the Year. Foss' 4,833 career assists rank fifth all-time at CSU, and are the top mark in the 25-point set era.

Dana Cranston | Fort St. John, B.C. | Third Team (2012)

Dana Cranston was the team anchor as a senior, propelling CSU to a fourth consecutive Mountain West title and earning AVCA All-America honors. Cranston ranked second in the MW for kills, points and aces, and ranked first among outside hitters for hitting percentage as a senior. The native of Fort St. John, B.C., was a two-time All-MW selection, including being named the MW Player of the Year in 2012. She became CSU's second-ever Academic All-American, and was also one of 10 national Senior CLASS Award finalists and 30 honorees for the 2013 NCAA Woman of the Year. While at CSU, the Rams advanced to four NCAA tournaments, and won four consecutive MW conference championships. After college, Cranston competed with the Canadian National Team and played professionally in France.

Megan Plourde | Somerset, Wis. | Third Team (2011)

Megan Plourde earned AVCA All-America status in 2011 after being the nation's best blocker, averaging 1.71 blocks per set. The Somerset, Wis., native finished her in CSU history in career ranked first in career block assists and second in total blocks. She ranked third in Mountain West history for total blocks at the conclusion of her career, in addition to being a dynamic and efficient attacker. Plourde became CSU's first-ever four-time All-MW selection and four-time AVCA All-Region recipient. During her career, the Rams won four MW titles, and advanced to the NCAA tournament each season, including the Regional Quarterfinals three times and the Regional Semifinals once. In 2011, she also was a Volleyball Magazine All-American and in September 2012 was named the AVCA National Player of the Week. After college, she competed professionally in Croatia and Switzerland.

Katelyn Steffan | Dickinson, N.D. | Third Team (2011)

Katelyn Steffan took her game to a new level during her senior season, switching to the left side and becoming one of the conference's best attackers, blockers and servers. CSU won both the Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships in 2011, also earning titles in 2009 and 2010 with Steffan on the court. CSU ranked as high as No. 14 in the nation as a senior, and in her four seasons, the Rams advanced to the NCAA tournament each year, including the Regional Semifinals in 2009. The Dickinson, N.D., native earned the 2011 MW Player of the Year and MW tournament MVP awards after leading the conference in kills and points, which also earned her a spot as an AVCA All-American.

Mekana Barnes | Highlands Ranch, Colo. | Third Team (2007)

Mekana Barnes will go down in CSU volleyball history as one of the most dynamic athletes to don a Rams uniform. Barnes was a four-year starter, and became one of the hardest hitters and most-feared middle attackers in the Mountain West. In both 2007 and 2008, she ranked among the top five blockers nationally, and in 2007 was the only player in the country to rank in the top 10 for both blocks and kills per set. During Barnes' playing tenure, CSU qualified for the NCAA tournament all four seasons, and ranked as high as No. 12, in 2008. She was named to the All-MW Team three times and was the 2007 MW Player of the Year, the same year she earned an AVCA All-America nod. She earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2008. Barnes went on to play professionally in Puerto Rico and Spain, and trained with the U.S. National Team in China and Egypt.

Soraya Santos | Vitória, Brazil | Second Team (2001)

Soraya Santos became CSU's first two-year player to earn All-America recognition. After beginning her career at the College of Southern Idaho, Santos transferred to CSU, and as a senior was named a 2001 AVCA All-American. Her lighting-fast arm swing made her one of the best jump servers in school history. She earned All-Mountain West status both years of her career, and set the MW tournament record for aces in a match, with eight vs. Air Force in 2001. Her career .350 hitting percentage ranked second in CSU history at the conclusion of her career. Santos was born in Vitória, Brazil, and won two MW titles and four NCAA tournament matches. This fall, she begins her After her career at CSU, she played professionally in several countries, including Spain, Portugal and France.

Angela Knopf | Troutdale, Ore. | First Team (2000, 01)

Angela Knopf was CSU's first two-time first-team AVCA All-America selection, earning the honors in 2000 and 2001. She was the 1998 WAC Freshman of the Year and a three-time All-Mountain West recipient, in addition to becoming a two-time MW Player of the Year. She led the nation in hitting percentage in 2001, a figure that still ranks eighth in NCAA volleyball history. Knopf finished her career as the Rams' all-time leader in hitting percentage, aces and total blocks, and fourth in kills. The native of Troutdale, Ore., played in four NCAA tournaments, winning seven total matches. In 2000, she became CSU's first Academic All-American, again receiving the honor in 2001. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006. After college, she trained with the U.S. National Team, and competed on the AVP tour for seven years.

Courtney Cox | Longmont, Colo. | Second Team (2000)

A dynamic all-around athlete, Courtney Cox concluded her career as the school's top blocking outside hitter. In addition to being named a 2000 AVCA All-American, she was a three-time All-Mountain West and MW tournament selection, and also competed in track & field as a senior. She helped the Rams to a 115-20 record, three regular-season and two MW tournament championships, and four NCAA tournament appearances, including the Regional Semifinals twice. In 1999, she was selected to the NCAA Tournament All-Region Team. Cox was also named the 2000 NACWAA State Farm Classic MVP, after CSU defeated No. 1 UCLA. At the conclusion of her career, she ranked in the top five for career kills and attacks, and was one of six players with more than 1,500 kills. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

The Rams have earned respect nationwide as one of the most consistent and successful programs in NCAA history. In fact, CSU has been ranked in 266 of the AVCA's all-time top-25 polls. Only 13 teams, entering 2015, have been ranked more frequently than the Rams. What's more, CSU has been ranked in the final AVCA poll 17 of 33 seasons, including six of the last seven since 2008, which ranks 15th.

CSU's highest-ever ranking was No. 3, in September and October 2000, shortly after the Rams took down No. 1 UCLA. CSU's best overall finish to a season was No. 6 in 1987. The Rams have been ranked in the top 10 a total of 75 weeks, 18th-most in the NCAA.

They have finished the season ranked in the top 10 four times (1984, 1987, 2000 and 2001), and are one of just 25 teams to ever be ranked in the top three.

CSU's record when ranked

- CSU is 460-130 all-time while ranked, including:
  - 258-30 at home
  - 145-71 on the road
  - 57-29 at a neutral site
  - 367-97 while ranked in the top 20
  - 144-26 while ranked in the top 10
  - 57-72 vs. ranked teams (while CSU is also ranked)
    - 35-19 vs. ranked teams at home
    - 13-36 vs. ranked teams on the road
    - 9-18 at a neutral site
    - 20-56 when playing a higher-ranked team
    - 37-17 when playing a lower-ranked team

CSU against ranked teams

- CSU is 71-152 against ranked teams, regardless if the Rams are ranked or not, including:
  - 46-46 at home
  - 14-77 on the road
  - 11-28 at a neutral site
  - 17-74 vs. top-10 teams

Hilbert against ranked teams

- 43-50 overall
  - 26-13 at home
  - 10-28 on the road
  - 7-9 at a neutral site

26-13 home record against ranked teams under Head Coach Tom Hilbert.

Head Coach Tom Hilbert doesn't shy away when talking about Moby Arena – the home court of the Colorado State volleyball program – calling it the greatest volleyball venue in America. It is one of the most distinctive and effective home-court playing facilities in the nation. Thanks to its dedicated fans, Moby Arena is home to crowds and winning percentages matched by few programs across the country.

NCAA tournament host 12 seasons, including the 2008 Regional Finals.

44-0 record under Hilbert against Colorado's four other Division I teams.

Mencimer Memorial Award - Annual award given to CSU's top scholar-athlete.

MW Scholar-Athlete - Established in 2003-04, the highest academic honor bestowed by the conference; is awarded to student-athletes with a 3.5 cumulative GPA or higher.

Academic All-MW - Given to student-athletes with a cumulative GPA above 3.0 and who have competed in at least 50 percent of her team's contest that season.

Colorado State has a history of not only developing outstanding players in Fort Collins, but for many, that extends to a professional career in volleyball. Three members of the 2012 senior class went on to play professionally. Additionally, 2001 graduate Soraya Santos begins her 13th season of professional ball this fall, the longest-tenured athlete in program history.

"We've helped give these players the opportunity to further their careers on a professional stage, which is really fun for me," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It's a big part of their lives and a time they'll cherish, and for some people, like Soraya, it's their career and their life. I'm proud that we've had so many players play professionally, and I think that speaks to the development we provide at Colorado State. I even like to get over there and share it with them when I can."

Recent graduates Dana Cranston (bottom right) and Megan Plourde (bottom left) are two of four former Rams who played professionally in 2014. They are joined by Brieon Paige and Soraya Santos (above attacking), who begins her 13th season overseas this fall.

Two times since the turn of the century a CSU player has led the nation in a statistical category – Angela Knopf in 2000, hitting .458, and Megan Plourde in 2011, averaging 1.71 blocks per set. Since the NCAA officially began tracking category leaders in 2001, several CSU individuals and Rams teams have ranked among the best in the nation.

MEDIA INFORMATION

WATCHING THE RAMS

Now in its second season, the Mountain West Network – which won a 2013 Emmy Award through the Heartland chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences for its technical achievement – will again broadcast the majority of CSU volleyball's contests in 2014.

The MWN allows CSU volleyball fans to live stream every home match and all conference road matches from their computer, smart phone or handheld device. The service is free of charge, and for home contests, the stream is a high-quality broadcast featuring multiple camera angles, instant replay and broadcasters. Additionally, all MWN streams will be immediately archived, and can be re-viewed online at any time. For all streams and video content, please visit www.CSURams.com/videos.

During the 2013-14 academic year, the MWN produced more than 1,500 live broadcasts and 1,100 on-demand videos, reaching 15.1 million unique viewers in 135 countries.

MOUNTAIN WEST NETWORK

RAMS ON THE RADIO

Rams volleyball can be heard not only locally, but worldwide through Rams Sports Properties. Every home match – and select road and all postseason matches – will be broadcast on KCSU (90.5 FM locally). For those not in the area, contests can be heard online at www.KCSUfm.com.

RAMS ON THE WEB

All of the latest news, scores and statistics for Colorado State athletics can be found on CSU athletics' official website, www.CSURams.com, which received a major facelift over the summer.

Fans can also get an inside look into Rams volleyball by logging onto www.ramvolleyball.colostate.edu. The recruiting website, which also was rebranded over the summer, features exclusive video content, facilities tours and more.

RAMS IN THE SOCIAL REALM

CSU's award-winning social media accounts allow fans an even deeper look inside the program, including breaking news, behind-the-scenes content and the opportunity to win prizes.

In May 2013, CSU volleyball was recognized as the 2012-13 AVCA Grant Burger Media Award recipient for its exceptional social media use. The award annually recognizes a person or organization who best spreads the awareness of the sport of volleyball and intends to grow the game.

Followers of CSU volleyball have many avenues to keep up with the Rams on social media, including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and more. We encourage you to follow/like these accounts to stay connected.

WELCOME! The Colorado State athletic media relations office genuinely appreciates your coverage of CSU volleyball, and looks forward to each and every time it can welcome you to Fort Collins. Members of the office, including volleyball contact Zach Balside, director Paul Kirk, assistant directors Nic Hallisey and Danny Mattie, as well as the team of student-assistants, are available to assist with your coverage. The office is happy to help you however it can. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with the policies relevant to your coverage of the volleyball program, as outlined on this page and the next.

Please feel free to contact Zach Balside via phone or email with questions regarding the media policy.

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the volleyball program, including Head Coach Tom Hilbert, the coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through Zach Balside in the athletic media relations office.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from approaching any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means – including text messages, email, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, such as Facebook and Twitter – without first approaching the athletic media relations office.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program.

INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

- Interviews, either in person or via telephone, with members of Colorado State's volleyball coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through assistant director of media relations Zach Balside.
- Media are asked not to request an individual's personal contact information, including email and cell number, but rather to contact Zach Balside.
- Student-athletes and coaches are available for interviews at the conclusion of daily practice sessions. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.
- Interviews are not permitted in the locker room or training room. Interviews will not be granted on match days until following the contest.
- Telephone interviews should be requested at least 24 hours in advance and coordinated through Zach Balside. All interviews will be processed on an availability basis involving the requested interviewee.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

- Single-match credentials must be requested through Zach Balside in writing at least three days in advance of a match. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the media relations office or at the match. On days of matches, credentials can be obtained just outside the west side of the Moby Arena court. Media members are asked to enter through the McGraw Athletic Center doors (just east of the Moby Arena parking lot) and follow the ramp on the right down to the court. At the bottom of the ramp, a table will be set up with credentials.

PARKING
- Media parking is available at Moby Arena. Please contact the CSU media relations office to request a Moby Arena parking pass.
- Access to the parking lot will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays during the academic year. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the media relations office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management website: www.colostate.edu/depts/parking.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES
- All Colorado State volleyball practices are open to the media and public, unless otherwise noted.
- During the season, practice will generally run from 12:30-3 p.m. during the week, except on match and travel days. Please note, practice times are subject to change on short or no notice. At times, practice will end early, so please plan to arrive early. Practice will usually take place in Moby Arena, but contact Zach Balside for the most updated schedule.
- All interviews must take place after the conclusion of practice. If this is an issue, contact Zach Balside, and the media relations staff will try and accommodate your schedule.
- Media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Members of the general public attending practice are asked to sit in Moby Arena upper seating.

GAMEDAY
- Near the end of each home match, the media relations staff will ask those on hand representing the media whom they wish to speak with. Approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each match, Head Coach Tom Hilbert and the selected student-athletes will be brought to the Coors Auditorium, located in the McGraw Athletic Center, and will be available for questions.
- No student-athlete or coach can appear on a live post-game television or radio interview without permission obtained prior to the match from Zach Balside.

GAMEDAY SERVICES
- In-game services include live online statistics and box scores following each set. Notes, transcribed quotes and statistics will be available following the conclusion of the match.
- The media room, which is located just west of the court at the bottom of the ramp connecting Moby Arena and the McGraw Athletic Center, will be open at least two hours prior to the start of a match, and will provide updated notes on both teams, statistics and other information.
- Moby Arena offers complimentary wireless Internet access. Check the media room for access information.

ROAD MATCHES
- We appreciate your coverage, and if you would like to cover the Rams in person during a road match, please notify Zach Balside at least seven days in advance to provide ample time to request a credential from the opposing team.
- If you would like to talk to Head Coach Tom Hilbert after the conclusion of a road match via telephone, please notify Zach Balside prior to the start of the match. After the match, a member of the media relations staff will call you so you can talk with Coach Hilbert. Student-athletes will try to be made available, as well, if requested.

REPORTING OF INJURIES
- At all times throughout the year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Hilbert, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete or her teammates.

CSURAMS.COM
- The official website of Colorado State athletics is www.CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs.

VOLLEYBALL EMAIL LIST
- To receive email updates on the Rams, email assistant director of media relations Zach Balside at nic.hallisey@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to be added to the distribution list.

WEEKLY RELEASES
- Weekly news releases are available 48 hours prior to the first match of each week on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also will be emailed to media outlets upon request.

MOBY ARENA DIRECTIONS
- From the south (Denver): Take Interstate 25 north into Fort Collins. Exit I-25 (exit 268) and head west on Prospect Road. Turn right onto Shields. Moby Arena will be ahead and to your right. Enter the parking lot at the corner of Shields and Elizabeth streets.
- From the north (Cheyenne): Take Interstate 25 south into Fort Collins. Exit I-25 (exit 268) and head west on Prospect Road. Turn right onto Shields. Moby Arena will be ahead and to your right. Enter the parking lot from the corner of Shields and Elizabeth streets.
